DESCRIPTION

2026 Chevrolet Trax 1RS

The 2026 Chevrolet Trax 1RS is a compact SUV designed to make city driving easy, efficient, and enjoyable. Built with sleek styling and agile handling, this front-wheel drive model comes powered by a DOHC engine and supported by power steering for a responsive and confident ride. Its aluminum wheels, sporty rear spoiler, and automatic headlights give it a bold presence on the road, while the power sunroof adds a touch of open-sky freedom to your daily drive. Step inside and you'll find surprising comfort and smart design. The interior features heated front seats, a heated steering wheel, and power windows to keep you cozy and connected, no matter the season. The adjustable steering wheel, engine block heater, and front air conditioning are designed with convenience in mind, while Cross-Traffic Alert enhances your awareness in busy parking lots and intersections. Technology and safety are...
